Reconciliation for the First Time . . .

Children may celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation for the first time beginning at the age of seven or older. Parent-Child Preparation classes begin in October. A child must be at least age seven and understand the difference between doing something wrong on purpose (knowing right from wrong) or if the incident was an accident. There are three Parent-Child Reconciliation sessions to prepare for this sacrament. All children should have made their 1st Reconciliation by 4th Grade. Contact Diann Chase, DRE (diane.chase@stblase.org) if your child missed this window of opportunity.

Eucharist for the First Time . . .

Commonly, children prepare for Eucharist for the first time beginning at the age of seven or older.

Parent-Child Preparation classes begin in January; reception of Eucharist is always the 3rd Week of Easter.

It is important that children have sufficient knowledge and are carefully prepared so as to understand the mystery of Christ according to their capacity. For seven-year-olds or older, the process begins at home and is developed by weekly mass participation and is supported by formal Faith Formation programs which include four (4) Eucharist Parent-Child sessions from January -- April.

Questions to ask yourself as you determine your child's readiness:

- Does your child care about the Mass? Are they eager to receive Communion?
- Is your child easily distracted at the liturgy or are they beginning to notice the parts of the Mass?
- Do they sing the hymns and acclamations?
- Do they pray with the assembly?
- Do they listen attentively during the Liturgy of the Word?
- Do they ask specific questions about the mass or symbols in church?
